

Malcolm J. Gillis Jr. WARWICK- Malcolm J. Gillis Jr., 57, of 925 Orange Road, died unexpectedly at home on Saturday morning, May 22, 2010 after being stricken ill. Born on October 15, 1952 in Ayer, he was a son of Malcolm and Marion (Norton) Gillis Sr. Malcolm had a great career in the computer industry at places like General Electric, Digital, and several other large companies. He was tops in his field servicing computers in places like the FBI building and New York Police stations, as well as a number of other places until he became disabled in 1986. He had a passion for sports cars, liked to be outside, and a special place in his heart for animals, cats in particular. Malcolm will be missed dearly. Malcolm is survived by his girlfriend of 17 years, Jane Marnell, of Warwick; sister, Carolyn (Gillis) Daly of Sheborne; two nieces, Elizabeth of New York and Loren of Massachusetts; and a nephew, Alexander of Vermont. There are no calling hours. The family will have a service at a later date. Witty's Funeral Home, 158 South Main Street, Orange, is directing the arrangement