

Antonia Hebert

April 93

...lived in Littleton; 80

LITTLETON — Antonia "Tessie" (Krukley) Szymkowski Hebert, 80, of 12 Springfield Drive, Littleton, died Tuesday at Deaconess-Nashoba Hospital in Ayer.

She was born June 13, 1912, in Shirley, daughter of the late John and Annie (Kretkowski) Krukley.

She was the wife of Clarence Hebert, who died May 4, 1989.

She attended Fitchburg High School and was retired from Warren Manufacturing Co. of Littleton.

Mrs. Hebert was a communicant of St. Anne's Church in Littleton, Shirley Grange, Littleton Senior Citizens, and St. Anne's Sodality in Littleton.

She is survived by two sons, Walter Szymkowski of Shirley, and Robert Szymkowski of San Marcos, Texas; a daughter, Patricia Krucek of Fitchberg; two sisters, Josephine LaValley of Leominster, and Julia Schomborg of Millbury; three brothers, Joseph Krukley of New Zealand, Bernard Krukley of Shirley, and Charles Condrot of Shirley; three stepchildren, seven grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren.

d: 3-30-93