

December 20, 2010

Leo Harrington, 70

HAVERHILL — Leo Harrington, 70, died Wednesday, Dec. 15, 2010 in the Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center in Boston. He was the beloved husband of Maureen E. (Brennan) Harrington.

Born in Goffstown, N.H., on Feb. 16, 1940, he was the foster son of the Cook family in Sheldon, Conn. Raised in Sheldon, he was a graduate of Sheldon High School. He has resided in South Boston, Philadelphia and Salisbury for many years before moving to Bradford in 1991.

Leo was employed as a retail clerk at Ann & Hope for many years. He had also once worked as a cook at Burger King in Salem, N.H., and Methuen.

He was a member of the Newburyport Elks Club 909 and the King of Grace Church in Bradford, where he also served as a caretaker. He enjoyed puzzles, bowling, movies and playing horseshoes. He will be remembered for being full of life, having a great sense of humor and for his devotion to his faith and his loving wife, Maureen.

In addition to his wife of 19 years, he is survived by his four children, Bonnie Ellen, Regina, Michael Jeremiah and Leo; and his many friends at the King of Grace Church. He was also predeceased by his sister, Dorothy Taylor.

ARRANGEMENTS: His funeral service will be held on Tuesday in the King of Grace Church, 28 Chadwick St., Bradford at 7 p.m. Visiting hours will be held in the church prior to the service from 3 to 7 p.m. Interment will be held on Wednesday in the Westlawn Cemetery in Littleton at noon. Relatives and friends are cordially invited to attend. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in his memory to the King of Grace Church, 28 Chadwick St., Bradford, MA 01835. Arrangements are under the direction of the Linnehan-Grondin Funeral Home, 129 Kenoza Ave., Haverhill. For more information and to send online condolences, please visit www.linnehan-grondin.com.