

View/Sign Guestbook

AILEEN ROSE IVERSON

Aileen Rose Iverson longtime resident of Littleton; 83 Littleton Aileen Rose (O'Keefe) Iverson, 83. A long time resident of Littleton died on March 10, 2008 at Marlborough Hospital in Marlborough, She was born in Arlington, MA on July 17, 1924 daughter of the late Timothy and Agnes (Mahoney) O'Keefe and was the wife of the late Edward James Iverson who died in 1984. She grew up in the Arlington area as a young girl and later moved to Ayer. She was a graduate of Ayer High School. Aileen worked as telephone and switchboard operator for many years. She met Edward when he was a young store clerk at the First National Grocery Store in Ayer and often told the story of going to the store several times a week on the pretence of buying a can of peas or a can of corn just to get the chance to see the young fellow who had captured her fancy . They were married 37 years and raised 7 children. A life long resident of Littleton, she communicant of St. Anne's Church in Littleton and was active the in women's sodality. She was involved with in many town functions including election poll worker and was a pretty lucky weekly bingo player. As a young woman, she was a member of St. Mary's church choir and loved singing at family gatherings. She was a proud member of Red Sox Nation, and spent many hours decorating her home. Mrs. Iverson is survived by her daughters, Annemarie Iverson of Boylston, Kathryn Iverson of Westboro, Aileen Iverson Doyle and her husband William of Gardner, Margaret Young and her husband John of Brookfield, and Mary Berry and her husband Michael of Townsend; a son Edward J. Iverson and his wife Cathy of Ayer, and was predeceased by her son William P. Iverson who died in 2004. She is also survived by ten grandchildren and five great grandchildren. She is also survived by a sister Mary Ellen Sayles of Florida, 3 brothers Francis O'Keefe of Billerica, John O'Keefe of Concord m Robert O'Keefe of Westborough and many nieces and nephews. She will be missed by all who knew her and loved her including her dear cousin Kathleen "Sis" Walsh of Walpole MA and her best friend of 70 plus years Lorraine Bragan of Lowell. IVERSON Aileen Rose (O'Keefe), 83. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Anne's Catholic in Littleton on Saturday at 11:30 a.m., Visiting Hours will be at Badger Funeral Home 347 King St. Littleton on Saturday from 9-11:15 am prior to the Mass. Burial at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to your local American Heart Ass. See www.badgerfuneral.com

Published in the Lowell Sun on 3/12/2008.

Notice • Guest Book • Flowers

Today's Lowell Sun obituaries

Questions about obituaries or Guest Books?

Contact Legacy.com • Terms of use

Powered by Legacy.com
obituaries nationwide

Back