

Doris E. Jordan

...Littleton, Oaken Bucket hostess; 94

LITTLETON — Doris E. (Owen) Jordan, 94, a longtime Littleton resident and a former hostess at a landmark Westford restaurant, died Saturday, March 23, at Emerson Hospital in Concord after a brief illness. She was married for 53 years to Vincent F. Jordan, who died in 1988.

She was born in Leominster, on Oct. 24, 1907, a daughter of James and Rose (Gonyea) Owen. She graduated from Leominster High School, and the Fitchburg Normal School.

Mrs. Jordan was a co-founder of the Littleton Westford Emblem Club. She had worked at the Dupont Chemical Co. in Leominster, and at the Diamond "C" Market. Prior to her retirement, she was employed at City Cleaners in Littleton, and was a hostess at the Old Oaken Bucket in Westford, which recently closed.

She spent her summers in New Hampshire, and enjoyed fishing, swimming, skating, and traveling to Old Orchard Beach, Maine.

Survivors include a daughter and son-in-law, Ellen and Earl Banks of Littleton; two grandsons, Kenneth Banks, Dwayne Banks and his companion Mary Jo, all of Littleton; two granddaughters, Cynthia Robinson and her husband Dana of Hudson, Patrice O'Malley and her husband Michael of Littleton; five great-grandchildren, Brianna and Corey Robinson, Christopher and Kyle Banks, and Kelly O'Malley; two stepgreat-grandchildren, Jeffrey and Melissa Whalen; a brother, Charles Owen, residing in Florida. She also leaves her lifelong friend, Mary Harding; as well as many nieces and nephews.

She was also the sister of the late Royce Owen, Stephen Owen, Lillian Owen, and Mary Stebbins.
