

Charles B. Johnson III; Girls Inc. employee

LYNN

Mr. Charles B. Johnson III, 42, of Bond Street, died suddenly Friday at home. He was the husband of the late Diosita "Joy" (Bagares) Johnson.

Born in Concord, he was the son of Gwendolyn M. (Morrill) Higgins of Littleton and the late Charles B. Johnson Jr. He was also the stepson of Walter C. Higgins of Littleton. He graduated from Acton-Boxborough High and lived in Acton for many years. He resided in Lynn for the past eight years.

He received his associate's degree from North Shore Community College in Lynn and also attended Salem State College.

Mr. Johnson worked for the past five years for Girls Inc. of Lynn. He was previously employed as a carpenter for many years with his brother, Eric.

Mr. Johnson also leaves two sons, Charles B. Johnson IV of Saugus and Joshua B. Johnson of Lynn; a daughter, Courtney Rose Johnson of Saugus; two brothers, Eric Johnson of Acton and Wade Johnson of Lakeland, Fla. and several relatives.

Services will be private and arrangements are by the Solimine, Landergan and Rhodes Funeral Home.

Johnson: Of Lynn, March 24,
Charles B. Johnson III, age 42 years. Husband of the late Diosita
"Joy" (Bagares); son and step-son of Gwendolyn M. (Morrill) and Walter C. Higgins; father of Charles
B. IV, Courtney Rose and Joshua
B.; brother of Eric and Wade; also sadly missed by best friends Kristin and Beverly Klopotoski and Patricia Malone. Services will be private.
Arrangements by the SOLIMINE,
LANDERGAN and RHODES Funeral

Homes of Lynn. Memorial donations may be made to Girls Inc., 88 Broad St., Lynn 01902, or to the Joslin Diabetes Center, 1 Joslin Place, Boston 02215.