

JAN. 21, 1905

Mrs. Eloner V. Jackson, wife of C. E. Jackson, who has been a resident of this town for the past ten years, died Tuesday afternoon of kidney trouble, after an illness of grip and pneumonia, aged forty-three years. The deceased was a native of Middleborough, this state, and the funeral was yesterday afternoon, burial in Littleton cemetery. Mrs. Jackson's brother is E. R. Washburn of Ayer, and the only one of the family left, three dying in the last four years.