

Ralph L. Kilpatrick

... Nashua, apartment manager, 70

NASHUA — Ralph L. Kilpatrick, 70, of Nashua, a former Littleton resident who had managed a Londonderry, N.H., apartment complex for many years, died yesterday, March 22, at his home after a brief illness. He was the husband of Joan (Durant) Kilpatrick, with whom he celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Oct. 6.

He was born in Malden on June 5, 1931, a son of the late Harold and Emma (Fairfield) Kilpatrick. He was educated in Malden schools, and he graduated from Malden High School in 1949.

He served in the U.S. Navy during the Korean War.

Mr. Kilpatrick worked as the property manager for Robert Dufour, managing Stonehenge Apartments in Londonderry for more than 21 years before retiring in July of 2001. He previously had been employed as a Linotype operator for the Lowell Sun, Courier Printing Co. and Sullivan Bros. Printers, all of Lowell.

Prior to moving to Nashua last year, he had lived in Londonderry for 21 years and Littleton for 16 years. He also had lived in Brattleboro, Vt., Melrose, Falmouth, and Port Deposit, Md.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters and one son-in-law, Kathleen Knox and her husband, Joseph, of Littleton, and Patricia Jean of Nashua; three sons and three daughters in-law, Robert Kilpatrick and his wife, Colleen (Cullity), of Littleton, Richard Kilpatrick and his wife, Deborah (Hobart), of Monmouth, Maine, and Michael Kilpatrick and his wife, Amy (McCarthy), of Westford; a sister, Ruth Moore of Canastota, N.Y.; three brothers and a sister-in-law, Douglas Kilpatrick and his wife, Marion, of Lynn, Robert Kilpatrick of Malden, and Richard Kilpatrick of Commack, N.Y.; 15 grandchildren; one great-granddaughter; and many nieces and nephews.
