

Teresa Kenney -

Teresa (Malsbendan) Kenney, 54, of 215 Taylor Street, Littleton died on May 30 at University of Massachusetts Medical Center in Worcester after a lengthy illness. She was born in Somerville on July 28, 1940, daughter of the late John and Esther (Whittaker) Malsbenden. She spent her early life in Somerville and was a graduate of Somerville High School, Class of 1958. Terri had made her home in Littleton since 1958 where she worked at Harvard Trust Bank as a teller for three years. She was the former owner of Kenney Farms and presently owner and manager of Littleton Personal Storage Facility. Terri will best be remembered as the driver of Bus No. 1 for the Littleton School System where she drove with a perfect safety and attendance record for the past eight years. Ms. Kenney was a very active communicant of St. Anne's Church in Littleton.

Her survivors include a sister Mrs. Marvin (Joan) McMillan of Chelmsford, a daughter Kristen L. Kenney of Littleton, two sons, Michael J. Fencer of Clinton, and Patrick D. Kenney of Townsend and a granddaughter, Danielle Teresa Kenney of Townsend. She was also the mother of the late Sean K. Kenney, who died in 1990 and leaves behind many close friends.

5/30/95