

Lowell Sun - Lowell, MASS.
SATURDAY, August 4, 2001

Robert M. Lingham Sr. ... of Littleton, served in the Army; 100

ASHUELOT, N.H. — Robert M. Lingham Sr., 100, died at Harborside Applewood Nursing Home in Winchester, N.H. on August 1. He was the husband of the late Marjorie (Proctor) Lingham, who died in 1998.

He was born in Boston on August 27, 1900, a son of the late Clarence and Edith (Raney) Lingham. He grew up in Newton Highlands and served in the Army during World War I. He received his B. S. and Ph.D. from Brown University in 1922. He was married in 1925.

Mr. Lingham had made his home in Littleton since 1922 where he owned and operated Priest Farms, which include orchards and dairy farming. He worked at Littleton Oil Company with his son for many years and later worked in the main office of International Harvester in Acton owned by Clayton Mersereau. He retired in 1984. He made his home in Ashuelot with his son, Robert and his wife, Gail for the past few years.

Mr. Lingham served for nine years as a Selectman for the Town of Littleton as well as an Assessor for 11 years. He was treasurer of the Farm bureau, Treasurer for Nashoba Hospital, a member of the American Legion and a member of the Tahattawan Masonic Lodge, A.F. & A.M.

He is survived a son, Robert M. Lingham Jr. of Ashuelot, N.H.; a daughter, Ann Schubert of Edgecombe, Maine; five grandchildren; and 10 great grandchildren.

Mr. Lingham was the brother of the late Charlotte Lingham, Helen Kimball, Marion Lingham and Phil Lingham.

LINGHAM — of Ashuelot, N.H. Robert M. Lingham, Sr., 100, formerly of Littleton, Mass. Private Services will be held at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to Littleton Historical Society, Littleton, Ma. 01460, Badger Funeral Homes are in charge of arrangements.