

Albert E. Landers, 88 and a longtime Concord resident passed away peacefully at Emerson Hospital on Monday morning, April 22, 2019. He was the loving husband of Muriel F. (Flight) Landers.

Albert's is a story of perseverance. He was born in Boston on May 25, 1930, a son to the late Thomas and Emily (Avery) Landers. Following his discharge, Albert attended Bentley College and earned his Bachelors in Business Administration. It was after this time that he met his wife Muriel and thus began a love story that would span 58 years of marriage. The couple settled in Lexington and raised their family. After a successful career in corporate accounting, Albert went on to become a CPA and established a private practice in Lexington for many years before retiring.

In addition to his wife, Albert is survived by his son Richard Landers, his daughter-in-law Elizabeth, his grandson Matthew and granddaughter Meredith, all of Littleton.
