

PHYLIS THERMA DEMERS

MRS. LEMUEL MOORE

7/27/05

Phyllis T. Moore

LITTLETON — Phyllis T. Moore, 83, a longtime Littleton resident, died Wednesday, July 27, 2005, at Emerson Hospital in Concord. She was the wife of the late Lemuel Moore.

She was born in Middleboro on April 25, 1922, the daughter of the late William A. and Abbie (Lewis) Demers. Mrs. Moore was raised in Middleboro and graduated from Middleboro High School.

Mrs. Moore lived in many parts of the country and had been a Littleton resident for many years.

She was a past treasurer of the Shattuck Street Tenants Association in Littleton.

Mrs. Moore enjoyed crafts, ceramics and painting.

She is survived by a son, Philip B. Kivlin and his wife, Madelyne, of Littleton seven grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; five brothers, and four sisters.

She was also the mother of the late Alfred, Timothy, and Patrick Kivlin.

A funeral was held Aug. 1, from the Badger Funeral Home in Littleton.

For those who wish, contributions in Mrs. Moore's memory may be made to the American Lung Association, P.O. Box 265, Burlington, MA 01803.