

Irene Meyerholz

Irene (Lautenschlager) Meyerholz, 68, of 186 Tahattawan Road, Littleton, died at Emerson Hospital in Concord on August 14.

She was born in New York City November 26, 1917, daughter of the late George and Hattie (Waldele) Lautenschlager. She spent her early life in the Yorkville section of New York City. After high school she worked as a secretary and was married in 1944 to William V. Meyerholz. They lived in New Jersey until 1952 when they moved to Danbury, Connecticut.

Mrs. Meyerholz worked for Ortho Pharmaceutical Company in New Jersey and Clementas Panel Company in Connecticut. They made their home in Littleton since 1959. She was a member of the Littleton Congregational Church and on the flower committee. She worked part time at April's Attic Antique store in Westford, belonged to the bridge group and worked for the American Red Cross during bloodmobile drives.

Irene is survived by her husband, William V. Meyerholz of Littleton; a daughter, Mrs. Dale (Susan) Shaw of Groton; and a granddaughter; Kimberly Ann Shaw of Groton.

Funeral Services were held at the First Congregational Church in Littleton on Monday with Reverend William Belden officiating. Burial was at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton. Those who wish may make contributions in her memory to the American Cancer Society. Funeral directors were William and David Badger.

d: Aug. 14, 1986