

Lowell SUN - Lowell, MASS.
Wednesday, November 19, 2008

Marion J. Mague

loved to sing and ballroom dancing; 78

Littleton — Marion J. (Bradley) Mague, 78, formerly of Littleton, died on November 17, 2008 at Edgewood Centre Nursing Home in Portsmouth, NH.

She was born in New Vineyard, Maine on September 8, 1930 daughter of the late Raymond and Josephine (Ciricano) Bradley and was the wife of the late Herbert Mague who died in December 2007.

She grew up in Maine and was graduated as Valedictorian of Farmington High School in 1946.

Marion moved to Littleton, and worked for many years at the Conant General Store. She was married to Herb in 1951 when they made their home in Westford for ten years, Nashua, NH for five years and returned to Littleton. They retired to Florida in 1982 and traveled extensively including Europe and the Caribbean.

She was a member of the American Legion Ladies Auxiliary, a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and a member of St. Anne's Church in Littleton. She loved to sing and ballroom dancing.

Mrs. Mague is survived by a daughter, Theresa Olson of York, ME; four sons Daniel Mague of Coral Springs, FL, David Mague of Nashua, NH, Richard Mague of Marlboro and Robert Mague of Windham, NH; two brothers David Bradley of New Ipswich, NH and Francis Bradley of Manchester, NH; a sister Shirley Ingalls of Nashua, NH. She is also survived by ten grandchildren Benjamin and Jeremy Mague, Haley Olson, Anthony and Colleen Mague, Jennifer and Emily Mague, and Samantha, Julia and Stephen Mague. She was also the sister of the late Raymond Bradley Jr.

MAGUE — Funeral from the Badger Funeral Home, 347 King St, Littleton on Friday at 9am with a Mass of Christian Burial at St. Anne's Church, Littleton at 10am. Visiting Hours Thursday from 4-8pm. Burial at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton.