

Louis 'Louie' MacDonald

Born In: Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada

Passed in: Littleton, Massachusetts, United States Passed on: June 1st, 2011

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Louie MacDonald of Littleton, Mass. on June 1, 2011. Louie was born in Sydney and lived on Atlantic Street (now Colby) in his younger years.

He was predeceased by his parents, Norma and Clarence MacDonald. Although Louie lived in the U.S. for many years he returned for many summer vacations to his Cape Breton home, which he loved so dearly. He was at his happiest playing cards and telling stories with his friends and family. He is survived by his loving and devoted children, daughter, Stacie (Sean) and grandchildren, Matthew, Megan and MacKenzie; son, Scott (Nicole) and grandchildren, Zachary and Alexa, all of Littleton. His sister, Dolores 'Dodie' (Ken) Coombs of Sydney; also aunts and cousins and a special uncle, Bernie Landry and wife, Gayle, who dropped in for a visit every spring on their way back from Florida to Sydney. Funeral arrangements took place in Littleton.
