

William Ware Adams died at Westvale on Tuesday night. He had been sick for several weeks with pneumonia, but was apparently much better when he had a paralytic shock rendering him unconscious. He was born in Littleton and was 35 years old. Funeral services were held at the residence of his mother in Littleton on Friday, Rev. Mr. Brown officiating. There was a large attendance of neighbors and friends and the floral tributes were most beautiful.