

MARY ODDY
MRS. PARKINON ODDY

1952

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Mary Jane Oddy, wife of the late Parkinson Oddy, last Thursday, April 11 from the Badger Funeral Home, King Street, Littleton. Rev. Lawrence E. Tee, pastor of the Lawrence Street Congregational Church in Methuen conducted the services. Burial was in Westlawn Cemetery in Littleton where the committal service was read by Rev. Tee.

Mrs. Oddy, well-known Littleton resident and a member of the community for over 50 years, died at the Bonsecour Hospital, Methuen following a short illness.

Born in Tilbury, Ontario, Canada in 1880, she lived for many years on Groton Road before moving to Littleton Common a few years ago. She had lived in Methuen since last year with her son, Dr. John G. Oddy.

She leaves one daughter, Mrs. George Kimball, Goldsmith Street, Littleton; three sons, Dr. Parkinson L. Oddy and Dr. John G. Oddy, both of Methuen, and Dr. Wm. B. Oddy of Orange; two brothers and a sister of Shattuck R. I., 12 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.
