

Agnes O'Keefe

Agnes (Mahoney) O'Keefe, 84, of 191 Foster St., died Thursday at Emerson Hospital.

Born in Arlington, Feb. 24, 1901 daughter of the late John and Catherine (Behan) Mahoney, she was the widow of Timothy L. O'Keefe, who died in 1965.

Mrs. O'Keefe spent her early life in Arlington, and was employed at the New England Telephone Company. She also worked as a dispatcher for the Littleton Control Center for more than 10 years.

She married Timothy, in 1922, and the couple lived in Littleton for 36 years.

A member of St. Anne's Parish and St. Anne's Sodality, she sang in the church choir. She was also a member of the Kings Daughters and the V.F.W. Auxiliary.

She is survived by five sons, Timothy L. O'Keefe Jr. of Tewksbury, John O'Keefe of Westford, Joseph O'Keefe of Chelmsford, Francis O'Keefe of Billerica and Robert O'Keefe of Westboro; three daughters, Mrs. Edward J. (Aileen) Iverson of Littleton, Jane Sim of Wyoming and Mrs. William (Mary) Sayles of Sudbury; 22 grandchildren; and 18 great-grandchildren.

Her funeral was held from the Badger Funeral Home, Rte. 2A/110 Littleton, Monday at 9 a.m. with a funeral Mass at St. Anne's Church, Rte. 2A/110 Littleton at 10 a.m. She was buried in the Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton. Funeral directors were David W. and William A. Badger.
