

Obituaries

d: Oct. 22, 1984

Anthony Priest

Anthony F. Priest Sr., 71, of Arc Place, Littleton, died at Emerson Hospital in Concord, Oct. 22, after a lengthy illness. He was born in Cambridge, September 30, 1913, son of the late Francis and Mary (Portanova) Priest. Anthony spent his early-life in Cambridge where he attended Webster Grammar School and was a graduate of Rindge High School. He served in World War II with the U.S. Marines and later worked as a roofer for most of his life for Gilbert & Becker, Inc. A resident of Littleton for 26 years, Mr. Priest was a member of Local 33 Roofers Union, a member of the Littleton-Westford Elks, and a communicant of St. Anne's Parish in Littleton.

He is survived by his wife Catherine (Haley) Priest of Littleton; four son, Francis and Richard Priest both of Littleton, Anthony F. Priest Jr. and Michael Priest both of Westford; five brothers, Alfred Priest and Edward Priest both of Waltham, Quintin Priest of Belmont, John Priest of Burlington and Wm. Priest of California; eight sisters, Mrs. Madeline Ryan of California, Mrs. Del (Florence) Baker of Medford, Mrs. Ralph (Amelia) Palmacci and Mrs. Francis (Nora) Alcaro both of Cambridge, Mrs. Charles (Carol) DeFrancisco of Lexington, Mrs. Herbert (Lucille) Theodore of California and Mrs. Claude (Marie) Wilkins of Pensacola, Florida, and the late Mrs. Al (Louise) Savatto. He is also survived by 13 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

A funeral Mass will be held at St. Anne's Church in Littleton on Thursday at 10 a.m. visiting hours at the Badger Funeral Home, Rt 2A, Wednesday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. Burial at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton. Funeral Directors Wm. A. Badger & Sons.