

Anna Poulin

LITTETON — Anna (Maskewicz) Poulin, 86 of Littleton, died peacefully at her home surrounded by members of her family, on September 15th after a long battle with cancer. She was born in Newburyport on August 10, 1925 daughter of the late Michael and Ann (Fondak) Maskewicz and was the loving wife of the late Robert A. Poulin who died in 1980. She grew up in Newburyport, MA and was a graduate of Immaculate Conception School, Class of 1943. She was married in 1943 and made her home in Natick for 5 years. Anna and Robert then moved to Littleton where she has made her home for over 63 years taking care of her family.

Anna was a member of Saint Anne's Church in Littleton, a member of Saint Anne's Sodality and ran the Sunshine Club at Saint Anne's for many years. She loved to read, crochet and knit and was a yard sale enthusiast. One of her favorite pastimes was playing Yahtzee with her children and winning and watching her beloved Red Sox. These last few months she was lovingly cared for at home by her daughter Cindy, grandson James Sawyer and great-grand-
