Edna M. Robinson...Littleton High School teacher, antique shop owner; 93

SOUDEERTON, Pa. — Edna Mae Robinson, 93, a former Littleton resident who was a Littleton High School teacher, died Friday, July 7, at the home of her daughter, Dorothy, while in hospice care.

She was the beloved wife of the late John N. Robinson.

She graduated from Salem Teacher's College. She spent most of her life in Littleton, where she was a high-school teacher heading the Business Education Department.

Later in life, Mrs. Robinson and her husband, John, operated Robinson Village Antiques in Littleton, before moving to their retirement home in Wolfeboro, N.H.

She was a member of the Congregational Church in Littleton and later the Grace Community Church in Souderton.

According to family members, she was incredibly gracious, loved people and was much loved in return. She never met a stranger and lived to care for her family and friends. She was gentle, soft-spoken, kind and the living embodiment of grace. Her smile, words of encouragement, generosity and Christian example were precious gifts that live on; she will be greatly missed.

She was a beloved mother, grandmother and great-grandmother.

She is survived by a son, John D. Robinson of Ridgeland, Miss.; a daughter, Dorothy J. Small of Souderton; eight grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren.

She was also the mother of the late Douglas B. Robinson.
