

ELIZABETH (LIZZIE) McELROY RAMSDELL

d. 16 Apr 1905.

DEATH.—In the Sunday evening's gloaming the spirit of Elizabeth M., wife of Henry H. Ramsdell, left its weary, earthly tabernacle for its eternal home above after a lingering illness, during which she was a great sufferer, bearing it all with wonderful patience and fortitude, and all, that human skill and love could devise, was done to restore her health, but it was otherwise ordered. So long as able, Mrs. Ramsdell took an interest in all that was helpful and uplifting, ever ready to do her part, in lending a helping hand, in doing for others, even beyond her strength. She was a devoted wife and mother, and in that little home circle she will be most sadly missed; only a sister and brother is all there is left of the family. She was a loyal member of the King's Daughters, the circle remembering her with a handsome floral emblem and attending the funeral. The Sunday school class of which she was a member sent a floral piece and many other beautiful ones from friends, all testifying to her worth and goodness of heart. Many relatives and friends from far and near were present at the funeral Wednesday afternoon, Rev. J. F. Malick in attendance, speaking words of comfort and hope, and amid the green and blossoms she was laid to rest.
