

Lowell Sun — Lowell, Mass.
Thursday, August 23, 2001

Mary (Page) Brown ... lifelong Littleton resident; 79

LITTLETON — Mary (Pickard) (Page) Brown, 79, a lifelong Littleton resident who was a former telephone operator and postal worker, died yesterday, Aug. 22, at the Lahey Clinic in Burlington. She was the wife of Richard W. Brown, whom she married in 1983.

She was born in Littleton on Sept. 9, 1921, a daughter of the late William and Florence (Houghton) Pickard. She graduated from Littleton High School in 1939. She also attended the University of Vermont.

Mrs. Brown worked as a telephone operator at the Band Box in Littleton. She also worked at General Radio and Conant Houghton United Elastics. In 1980, she retired from the U.S. Postal Service.

She was a life member of the Congregational Church of Littleton, and an active member of the Littleton Historical Society.

Besides her husband, survivors include six children, Richard W. Brown Jr. of Gardener, Susan King, residing in Michigan, Deborah Dunham, residing in Maine, Elaine Brown of Point Pleasant, W. Va., Carol Jones, residing in Hawaii and Donna O'Connell of New Seabury; as well as many grandchildren, great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

She was also the mother of the late Karen Cullen, and wife of Frank Page, who died in 1969.

BROWN — Of Littleton, Mary (Pickard) Page Brown, August 22. Funeral services will be held on Saturday at 9 a.m. at the Littleton Congregational Church, King St. Littleton. Visiting hours will be at Badger Funeral Home, Rt 2A/110 Littleton, Friday 2-4 and 7-9. Burial at Westlawn Cemetery. Contributions in her memory may be made to Littleton Historical Society, Stevens Street, Littleton, Mass.