

d: 1-2-94

Urbano Souza

Urbano "Herb" Souza, 66, of 38 George St., Littleton, died at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Brighton on Jan. 2.

He was born in New Bedford Oct. 22, 1927, son of the late Urbano and Mary (Perriera) Souza. He spent his early life in New Bedford and served in the U.S. Army during WW II. Mr. Souza served in Germany where he met his wife Waltraut, and was married in 1949.

He made his home in New Bedford and Allston for most of his life before making his home in Littleton. Mr. Souza served in the Army National Guard for over 20 years before his retirement. He also worked for General Electric and as a bus driver for Greyhound Bus Co., Mr. Souza also bought and sold real estate as a hobby. He was a communicant of St. Anne's Church and the Littleton VFW.

Mr. Souza is survived by his wife, Waltraut (Waldeck) Souza of Littleton; his children Urbano "Fred" Souza of Somerville, Kenneth R. Souza of Watertown, Peter R. Souza of Winthrop, Rosemary Souza of California, Renita E. Hall of Littleton, and Waltraut C. Trim of Leominster; a brother Edward P. Souza of Leominster and a sister Madeline Crumley of Ashburnham. He is also survived by 10 grandchildren.

A funeral mass was held Jan. 7 at St. Anne's Church and burial was at Westlawn Cemetery in Littleton. For those who wish, contributions may be made in his memory to Children's Extended Care in Groton, Mass.