

d: Oct. 1, 1985

3 Oct 85

Ellsworth (Shorty) Brown

"Shorty" of Littleton died at 221 Taylor Street, Littleton, on Oct. 1 after a lengthy illness. His name was Ellsworth H. Brown but everyone knew him as "Shorty." He was born in Somerville Sept. 2, 1910, son of the late George and Lucy (Eldridge) Brown. Shorty spent many years in Canada working on farms until he was 18. He later returned to the United States and made his home in Littleton for over 30 years.

Shorty then worked as a cook and kitchen tech at the former Monarch Diner of Littleton, the former Wayside Restaurant of Littleton, Devenscrest Restaurant of Ayer, and most recently Barnaby's of Littleton for the past five years.

He was a member of The Bible Speaks of Pepperell and is survived by many friends.

A funeral service will be held at the Badger Funeral Home, King Street, Littleton, Friday at 11 a.m. Visiting hours Thursday 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Burial at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton. Funeral directors William A. Badger and Sons.