Mildred Snook ... of Littleton, formerly of Chelmsford

LITTLETON — Mildred (Hewitt) Snook, 90, died Thursday, March 23, at Genesis Westford House in Westford. She was the wife of Frank G. Snook.

She was born in St. John's, Newfoundland, Canada, on May 25, 1909, a daughter of the late Stephen and Amelia Hewett. She spent her early life there before moving to Lynn at age 22.

After marrying in 1935, Mrs. Snook lived in Everett, then in Chelmsford for four years, and later moved to Littleton, where she had lived for the past 14 years.

She was a member of the Assembly of God, Glad Tidings, in Everett, and was also an avid reader.

Besides her husband, survivors include a son, Frank G. Snook Jr. of New Lenox, Ill.; two daughters, Beverly Hollingworth of Littleton and Donna Ricker of Durham, N.H.; a sister, Olive of St. John's, New Brunswick; four grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

She was also the sister of the late Evelyn Hewitt of St. John's, New Brunswick.
