

Matthew J. Sepe ...retired GM foreman

LITTLETON

—Matthew J. Sepe, 71, of 18 Woodridge Road, Littleton, died at Lahey Clinic in Burlington on April 30.

He was born in Westford, April 16, 1924, son of the late Antony and Florence (Paduano) Sepe.

Mr. Sepe spent his early life in West Concord, was a graduate of Concord High School Class of 1942 and served in the U.S. Army during World War II.

He worked as a foreman at the General Motors Plant in Framingham where he retired in 1989 after 39 years.

Mr. Sepe was a member of the Concord Rod & Gun Club, a member and coach of the Littleton Little League, Pop Warner Football, and the Littleton High School Boosters Club.

Matthew was a communicant of St. Anne's Church as well as a golf and cooking enthusiast.

Mr. Sepe is survived by his wife Elizabeth (Molloy) Sepe of Littleton; a son and daughter-in-law, Richard and Kimberly Sepe of Renton, Wash.; a son Matthew Sepe of Littleton; a brother, Salvatore Sepe of West Concord; two sisters, Mrs. Norman (Mary) McGeoch of Concord, and Mrs. Jack (Anna) Wallace of West Concord. He is also survived by numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.