

OBITUARY.—Jonathan N. Sawyer, whose funeral was held from his late home on Monday afternoon last, had been a most patient sufferer for many years, this same patience winning the interest of neighbors and friends to a universal degree. He was born in Oxford, N. H., Jan. 14, 1823, and until his coming to this town in 1875, his life was passed in his native place, until his removal to Bridgewater, Vt., where he was in the undertaking business for some years. Later he moved to Sharon, Vt., this being his home until his removal to this town. He was married to Miss Delia Metcalf, also of Vermont, in 1856. He was a consistent member of the Congregational church for nearly sixty years. Although he never held town office, he was always extremely interested in all the offices of the town, and did his part in loyally supporting town government. In his early life he was very active in church affairs, and after coming to this town was a Sunday school teacher for many years.

He was always particularly interested in the ministers of his church, and has taken them one by one into his heart and home. A tender and affectionate husband and father, an excellent neighbor, and most faithful friend, is the verdict of all who knew him. Rev. R. N. Fulton, his pastor, who for the past year or so has given him most kindly attention, officiated at the late home of the deceased on King-st. Mr. Sawyer leaves a wife and one daughter, also one sister, Mrs. Abbie Glines of New York state.
