Mabel Sammarco

...resident of Littleton since 1951; at 82

LITTLETON — Mabel (Legree) Sammarco, 82, a Littleton resident since 1951, died Saturday, Feb. 5, at Deaconess Nashoba Hospital in Ayer. She was the wife of Casper Sammarco, who died in 1988.

She was born in Shirley on June 26, 1917, daughter of the late William and Mary (Pelote) Legree. She spent her early childhood in Cherasusco, N.Y., and Shirley. She attended school both in New York and Shirley and was a graduate of Lowell Commercial College.

She was married in 1934 in Lynn and later resided in Devencrest in Ayer while her husband served in the Army. After moving to Littleton, she worked as a secretary in Civil Service for the Fort Devens quartermaster. She was a secretary for Bowl Mor and Chu Associates in Littleton.

Mrs. Sammarco was a member of St. Anne's Church in Littleton as well as the American Legion Auxiliary, and the King's Daughters. She loved to sew and cook.

Mrs. Sammarco is survived by her children and their spouses, Sam and Barbara Sammarco of Barefoot Bay, Fla., Judith and James Hunt of Littleton, and Nancy and Maurice Cherrier of Oldsmar, Fla.; a brother William Legree of Springfield, 13 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren; as well as several nieces and nephews.

She was also the mother of the late Joan Sammarco; and sister of the late Clarence Legree, Gertrude Kirby, Lillian Davis, and Rita Ennis.

SAMMARCO — Of Littleton, Mabel (Legree) Sammarco, Feb. 5. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Anne's Church, King St., Littleton, on Wednesday at 11 a.m. Visiting hours will be held at Badger Funeral Home, Rt. 2A/110, Littleton, on Wednesday from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m., prior to the Mass.
