

d: Dec. 8, 1986

Degory B. Truscott, 20, of 30 Warren St., Littleton, died unexpectedly Dec. 8.

Born in Ayer Dec. 1, 1966, he was the son of Robert R. Truscott and Jean C. Stewart. He lived all his life in Littleton. He was a graduate of Nashoba Valley Technical High School, class of 1985. He worked at Lowell Plumbing Supply Co. for the past five years as a plumber's apprentice. More recently he worked part time for Halpin's

Degory B. Truscott

Towing Service in Littleton.

He was active in school sports and was an avid hunter and sportsman. He belonged to Nashoba Valley Rod and Gun Club and the Littleton Sportsmen's Club.

He is survived by his grandmother, Edna M. Stewart of Littleton; mother Jean C. Stewart of Littleton; father Robert R. Truscott of Maynard; stepfather Eric L. Larson of Littleton; three brothers, Jeremy M. Truscott, Jason C. Truscott, and Bryan J. Truscott, all of Littleton; several uncles, nieces and nephews; and a fiancée, Tanya Latentschlager, of Westford.

Visiting hours are Thursday, Dec. 11, 7 to 9 p.m. at Badger Funeral Home, Route 2A, Littleton. Private graveside services will be held Friday.

Those who wish to make contributions in Degory's memory can do so to the Boston Children's Hospital, Boston, Ma.