

OBITUARY.—The funeral of the late J Porter Tuttle occurred on Monday of this week, at the Orthodox church, Rev. J. C Staples and Rev. W. I. Nichols officiating.
 Mr. Tuttle was the oldest man in town—nearly eighty-six. He always worked at the cooper business and was faithful and diligent in his occupation. Mr. Tuttle never missed attending town meeting durhis long life, thus giving an excellent example to all, especially the young men.
 He thought the privileges of our free government were worth being exercised.

March 1887