Alice Trepanier of Littleton, 89

Littleton — Alice (Stowell) Trepanier, 89, of Littleton, died on September 9, at Nashoba Valley Medical Center in Ayer after a brief illness.

She was born in Lowell on March 2, 1919 daughter of the late Joseph and Mary (Byne) Stowell and was the wife of the late Arthur Trepanier who died in 2003. She was educated in the Lowell School System and St.

Patrick's School and worked as a Licensed Practical Nurse at Tewksbury State Hospital. She was married to Arthur Trepanier for 60 years.

Alice was a life member and charter member of both the Disable American Veteran's and American Legion Auxiliary. She enjoyed working and traveling with her husband on Veterans Affairs.

She was a faithful communicant of St. Anne's Church in Littleton since moving to Littleton in the 1950's and also a charter member of St. Anne's Sodality where she enjoyed serving the Baptismal Robes.

Alice spent the last six months at Life Care of Littleton where she participated in all activities and received excellent care. Her family is truly grateful to the staff, nurses and activities personnel for making these last few months pleasant for her.

She is survived by a daughter, Lois Trepanier of Littleton, a son James and his wife Linda Trepanier of Lowell, three sisters Loretta O'Rourke of Nashua, NH, Anne and her husband Edward Golden of Lowell and Iren Newton of Lowell. She is also survived by a Granson Edward and his wife Susan Frederick of Pittsfield and a great-grandson Jackson. She was also the sister of the late Katherine Lally and Rita F. Stowell.
