

Lowell Sun - Lowell, Mass
Sunday, July 6, 2008

Brandee (Graves) Woodward

raised and educated in Littleton; 30

RADCLIFF, Kentucky — Brandee (Graves) Woodward, died suddenly on March 30, 2008, at the Hardin County Memorial Hospital in Elizabethtown, KY, from sepsis.

She was born in Fort Ord, Calif., May 7, 1977, beloved daughter of William J. and Linda (Stoffel) Graves, and wife of Andrew Woodward. While living in Kentucky, she had been employed at Cardinal Health Care, as pharmaceutical Customer Service Representative.

A longtime resident of Littleton, MA where she attended the schools and was a graduate of Littleton High School class of 1995, and University of Massachusetts Lowell class of 2000.

Services were held at Saint Brigid Catholic Church, Vine Grove, Kentucky.

She is survived by her parents, William J. and Linda (Stoffel) Graves of Radcliff, Kentucky. She is also survived by sisters, Leslee Dickens and her husband, Brendan of Radcliff, KY, and Kellee Graves of Shirley, MA; brother, William D. Graves; nieces, Nicole and Samantha Dickens, and Rachel Sanders of Radcliff, KY; an aunt, Sheila and her husband, Bill Laurer of Florida; her surrogate grandmother, Leona Sparks; and aunt and uncle, Carol and Richard Flagg of Littleton; cousins, Edward Stoffel of Littleton, and Kathy Harkins of Florida; as well as many other family members and friends.

GRAVES — A Graveside service will be held Wednesday, July 9, 2008 at 1 PM at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton. Relatives and friends kindly invited.