

4/24/93

Catherine Watson

... worked for Littleton schools

Catherine (Williams) Watson, 72, of Littleton, died unexpectedly at Emerson Hospital on April 24.

She was born in St. John's, Newfoundland on April 2, 1921 daughter of the late George and Marie (Moseworthy) Williams and was the wife of the late Thomas G. Watson who died in 1975. She spent her early life in Lynn surrounded by numerous relatives. She graduated from Lynn Classical High School and was employed as a payroll clerk for General Electric in Lynn. She married Thomas Watson in 1943 and they made their home in Newport, R.I..

Mrs. Watson has been a resident of Littleton since 1952. She was a homemaker early in her life then worked as a cafeteria manager and worker for over 30 years in the Littleton School System. She became a Communicant of St. Anne's Church in 1987 and has enjoyed many friends in the Ecumenical Community.

Mrs. Watson is survived by a son, Richard A. Watson of Clearwater, Fla. a daughter, Diane Watson of Littleton, a brother, Harold Williams of Lynn, five grandchildren, Paula Bush of Groton, Donna Hadzewycz of Port Orange, Fla., Richard Watson Jr., Sara Watson and Audra Kodes all of Littleton. She is also survived by three great-grandchildren, Bethany Bush, Rebecca Bush and Alexander Hadzewycz.

The funeral will be held Friday at 11 a.m. at St. Anne's Church. Visiting hours are Thursday from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. at Badger Funeral Home.