formerly of Littleton, master welder; 55

to JAFFREY, NH — Richard J. Wayland, 55, died Friday,
- January 1, 2010, at Peterborough Hospital, following a
- brief illness.

He is survived by his loving wife, Jocelyn Wayland; two daughters, Rachael Fernandez and her husband, Pablo of Fitchburg, MA, and Jacqueline Wayland of Littleton, MA; his father, Andrew Wayland of Littleton, MA; one brother, Andrew P. Wayland and his wife, Susan of Sacramento, CA; two sisters, Andrea Chandler and her husband, Richard of Northboro, MA, and Donna O'Connell of Orange, MA; three grandchildren, Nicholas, Jacob, and Cara Fernandez.

He was also survived by three step-children, Paul, Lisa, and Tammy; and two step-grandchildren; as well as many nieces and nephews.

Formerly of Littleton, MA, he was born in Brighton, MA, and was the son of Andrew Wayland and the late Jeanne (Ferris) Wayland, also of Littleton. He graduated from Nashoba Technical High School in 1973, and subsequently received advanced training and certifications in MIG and Steel welding processes. Dick worked as a Master Welder for most of his life, working at Processed Cooling, Tech Weld, and Siemens ITS in Austin, Texas before moving to NH in 2008.

Dick most enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. He enjoyed the beach, and was an avid motorcyclist spending countless time touring the roads of New England. He also enjoyed cooking, playing pool and chess, and tinkering with mechanical devices of all kinds. He will always be remembered by his free-spirited, gentle loving ways.

WAYLAND — Visiting Hours will be held at the Badger Funeral Home, 347 King St., Littleton on Tuesday from 7-9 p.m. A Graveside Service will be held at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton on Thursday, Jan. 7 at 1 pm. Please see www.badgerfuneral.com
