

Badger Funeral Homes, Inc.

FOUNDED 1921

HARRIS L. BADGER
WILLIAM A. BADGER

P.O. Box 146, Littleton, MA 01460

DIRECTORS:

DAVID W. BADGER
JOHN F. MCGAFFIGAN, JR.
CHARLES A. PERRY, JR.

Littleton

Beverley (Sawyer) White, 72, of Littleton and S. Yarmouth died on November 2, 2006 at Life Care Center of Nashoba Valley in Littleton, She was born in Waltham on December 9, 1933 daughter of the late Harold and Marion (Crossland) Sawyer and was the wife of the late Robert J. White who died in 2004. She spent her earl life in Watertown and moved to Littleton where she graduate from Littleton High School. She was married in 1953. Beverley worked for Irving Dunn at the Plymouth Dealership in Littleton for several years and later became the Assistant Traesurer for the Town of Littleton. She retired from the Town as the Town Treasurer after 32 years. She then worked for Dr. Gross in Concord for several years and then later Yarmouth Interns in S. Yarmouth. She and her husband Robert moved to South Yarmouth in 1987 . Mrs White was member and deacon of the Littleton Congregational Church and was a member of Pilgrim Congregational Church in harwic.

Beverley is survived by 2 sons Frederick G. White of Maynard, and Randolph and his wife Tina White of Littleton, and a daughter Rhonda and her husband Angelo Falcone of Acton. A brother Walter M. Sawyer of Lunenburg and 2 grandchildren Brittany and Katelyn White . She was also the sister of the late Harold E. Sawyer Jr.

Paid Notice 1 Day

White of Littleton and S. Yarmouth, Beverly (Sawyer) White, Nov 2, Funeral Services will be held at the Littleton Congregational Church, King St. Littleton on Monday Nov 6 at 10 a.m. Visiting Hours at the Badger Funeral Home Sunday from 2-4 and 7-9 pm. Burial at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton