

[REDACTED]

al Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Union Local #130 in the Boston Navy Yard and later as wiring inspector for towns of Littleton, Ayer, Groton and Harvard for over 20 years. Mr. Wilson was a member and past treasurer of Nashoba Sportsmen's Club and a communicant of St. Anne's Church in Littleton.

Kenneth Wilson

Kenneth A. Wilson, 89, of 27 Wychwood Drive, Littleton died at Deaconess Nashoba Hospital in Ayer on April 10. He was born in Springfield on Dec. 19, 1907, son of the late Joseph and Violet (Marcombe) Wilson.

He spent his early life in Springfield and was a graduate of Worcester Trade School. Mr. Wilson worked as an electrician all his life, first with the Internation-

Mr. Wilson is survived by his wife Mary (Begley) Wilson of Littleton; two sons, Richard Wilson of Colorado and Ronald Wilson of Townsend, and six grandchildren.

A Mass of Christian Burial was held at St. Anne's Church, Littleton, followed by burial at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton. Funeral arrangements by Badger Funeral Home, Route 2A/110, Littleton.

1997