

Courtesy photo

Herb Wing Obituary: Herbert Wing III

Littleton Independent

Wed Mar 25, 2009, 01:57 PM EDT

LITTLETON — Herbert Charles Wing III, died unexpectedly Wednesday, March 18, 2009, at the Lahey Clinic Medical Center in Burlington. He was the beloved husband of Rosemarie (Farina) Wing.

He was born in Lynn on May 4 1961, the son Herbert and Joanne ((Marshall-Walsh) Wing Jr. of Rowley. Mr. Wing grew up in Rowley and graduated from Byfield High School in 1979. He then attended St. Anselm's College for two years and graduated from Salem State College with a bachelor of science degree in criminal justice. He was married in 1987 had has made his home in Littleton for many years.

Mr. Wing worked in sales for Morris Alpert Food Brokers, which became Acosto, for several years and serviced places like Stop & Shop. Most recently he worked in Sales for H.P. Hood Co. for the past five years. He also owned his own disc jockey business called Traveling Tunes for the past 12 years. He was very active in Littleton Youth Baseball League, flag football and loved camping. According to his children he was “the best Dad ever” and loved parties.

In addition to his wife and parents, he is survived by two sons, Michael G. Wing and Justin C. Wing both of Littleton; three brothers, Stephen Wing of Battleground, Wash.,

Andrew Wing of Queen City, Ariz., and Matthew Wing and his wife, Suzanne (Marini); as well as many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.

A funeral service was held March 24, at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Acton. Burial was in Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton.

For those who wish, contributions in Mr. Wing's memory may be made to the Friends of the Wing Family, c/o Northern Bank & Trust, P.O. Box 597, Littleton, MA 01460.

Visit www.badgerfuneralhome.com.

