

Kedrick E. Sweatt d; Nov. 2, 1985

Kedrick E. Sweatt of 135 Goldsmith St. died Sat., Nov. 2 at the D'Youville Manor Nursing Home in Lowell. He was born in Columbia, New Hampshire, March 30, 1922, the son of the late Hollis and Nettie (Amy) Sweatt.

He had made his home in Littleton for over 35 years. He had spent his early life in New Hampshire. He worked as a laborer for the Littleton Highway Department for 21 years, retiring in 1982. He is survived by three sons, Melvin I. Sweatt, Arthur K. Sweatt, and Hazen E. Sweatt all of Littleton; and two daughters, Mrs. William (Corrine) Monahan of Littleton, and Mrs. Roger (Cynthia) Chamberlain of Tyngsboro. Also by five brothers, Milton Sweatt of Michigan, George Sweatt of New Hampshire, Forest Sweatt of New Hampshire, Jack Sweatt of Maine and Stuart Sweatt of New Hampshire; two sisters, Katherine Placy and Amy Riley both of New Hampshire; 14 grandchildren, and one great grandchild. Funeral services were held Tuesday, Nov. 5, at the Badger Funeral Home, Rt. 2A, Littleton with the Rev. Ken Whitt officiating. Burial was in Westlawn Cemetery.