

d: AUG. 17, 1986

Lawrence Burns

Lawrence J. Burns, of Dahillia Drive, Littleton died at Emerson Hospital, Concord after a long illness.

He was born in East Boston, Sept. 16, 1908, son of the late James A. Burns and Julia (Doyle) Burns.

He had lived in Littleton for the past 13 years and had previously resided in East Boston, and had spent most of his life in Somerville.

He attended East Boston Schools, was employed by the Boston Shipyard for 28 years and was retired at the time of his death.

Burns was a parishioner at St. Anne's Church, Littleton.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary (Leary) Burns of Littleton; a son, Lawrence J. Burns Jr. of Somerville; and two daughters, Mrs. Micharel (Claire) Ellis and Mrs. Charles (Patricia) Burgess of Littleton.

He also leaves a nephew, John J. Leary of Wakefield; a niece, Mary McLaughlin of Littleton; two sisters, Anna McWilliams and Clara J. Burns, both of East Boston; also 14 grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.