

d: 2 Apr '85 Olga Coulter

Olga (Costigan) Coulter, 59, of 46 Shaker Lane, Littleton died April 2, 1985 at her home.

She was born in Detroit, Mich., March 7, 1926, daughter of the late John and Victoria (Spinney) Costigan.

Born and raised in Michigan, she moved to Canada when she was young girl. She had previously lived in Dorchester and Lowell, Mass. prior to moving to Littleton in 1957.

She was a communicant of St. Anne's Church and sang in the choir for several years.

She is survived by her husband, William A. Coulter of Littleton; two sons, Michael J. of Littleton, a member of the Tyngsboro Police Department and Mark W. of Littleton, a member of the Billerica Police Department; four daughters, Janice (Charlton) Foss, Catherine A. Sullivan and Mary A. Hamblett, all Littleton and Jeannie E. Lurvey of Ayer; a brother Allan Costigan, of Chicago; two sisters, Opal E. Kierstead, of Littleton and Eleanor Manuel; also 16 grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.