

William G. Cooper, 78 of Littleton died on July 14. Born in Cambridge on May 27, 1933, he was son of the late William R. and Gertrude (Lyons) Cooper. He spent his early years in Blessed Sacrament School and then graduated from Boston College High School. He then joined the U.S. Air Force where he served during the Korean Conflict

Returning to civilian life, Mr. Cooper worked for Raytheon and Gen Rad. He built his house in Littleton where he and his family lived for 49 years. He attended Boston University and received a degree in electronics and furthered his education at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

He is survived by his wife Eleanor(Vasseur), his daughter Elizabeth Curley and her husband Richard of Westford, 2 grandchildren Elisha and Nicole, and one great grandson. Also survived by four sisters: Patricia and her husband Leonard Savignano of Kingston, MA, Marion and her husband Gerald Chaulk of Hudson, MA, Jean and her husband Richard Raymond of Scipio Center, NY, and Joan Vacca of Florida; two brothers: James Cooper and Richard Cooper of Nantucket, MA; and several nieces and Nephews.

Visiting Hours will be on Tuesday from 5-8 at the Badger Funeral Home, 347 King St.(Rt.110), Littleton. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Wednesday at 10AM in St. Catherine's Church, Westford followed by burial in Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton.