

William J. Cooper (1998)
... lifelong Littleton resident; 35

LITTLETON — William J. Cooper, of New Estate Road died Sunday, Jan. 18, at Tewksbury State Hospital.

He was born on March 28, 1962, a son of William and Eleanor (Vasseur) Cooper of Littleton. A lifelong Littleton resident, he was a 1981 graduate of Littleton High School.

He was an aide at several nursing homes, including Littleton House Nursing Home and Centerville Nursing Home on Cape Cod. He also worked in a floral shop and managed a dry cleaning store.

Mr. Cooper was a member of St. Anne's Church in Littleton, and was a volunteer at the Boston Living Center.

Besides his parents, he leaves a sister and her husband, Elizabeth and Richard Curley of Westford; two nieces, Elisha and Nicole Curley of Westford; and several aunts and uncles.