

BOSCAWEN - Roberta E. "Bobbie" Clement died on Aug. 8, 2014, at Merrimack County Nursing Home. She was born in Winchester, Mass., to Robert E. and Martha (Stimpson) Clement on April 8, 1950. Bobbie enjoyed sharing that she was born on Easter Sunday.

She graduated from Stoneham High School and then worked at the former American Mutual Ins. Co. in Wakefield, Mass. Bobbie first became ill in her late teens and then numerous and debilitating health problems developed throughout her life. She never complained and she suffered with dignity. She had a true heart of gold, a quiet and gentle demeanor, loved all people and animals and greatly enjoyed making and buying gifts for everyone. Bobbie especially loved Christmas and never forgot family or friends' birthdays. Everyone who knew her, including her wonderful caretakers, loved and admired her.

Preceded in death by both of her parents and stepfather, Normand C. Noel, she is survived by her adoring sister, Diane L. Clement of Concord, N.H., her stepmother Myrtle Walker of Bedford, N.H., two nieces, Jennifer Campbell of Freeport, Bahamas and Melanie Gosselin of Manchester, N.H. She also leaves grand nephews, cousins and her sister's dog Sadie who brought her love and comfort at her bedside..

services: A graveside service will be held Thursday, Aug. 14, at 11 a.m., at Westlawn Cemetery, 7 New Estate Road, Littleton, Mass.

I believe in the sun, even when it is not shining, In love, even when I am alone, In God, even when he is silent.
