

Lowell Sun, Lowell, Mass.

Friday, September 13, 2002

Michael J. Chulada

... Littleton, deliveryman, sheet metal worker; 87

LITTLETON — Michael Joseph Chulada, 87, a long-time Littleton resident who had worked as a dairy deliveryman, a sheet metal worker and an auto parts salesman, died Thursday, Sept. 5. He was the husband of the late Marietta Chulada.

He was born in Lowell on March 17, 1915, a son of Antonas and Bronislava Chulada, who immigrated to America from Lithuania and Poland. In 1948, Mr. Chulada moved to Littleton and lived there for the next 24 years. He later moved to Florida, and returned to Littleton after his wife's death.

While living in Littleton, Mr. Chulada delivered products for Herpy's Dairy serving residents of Littleton, Groton and Westford. He also did sheet metal work at Warren Manufacturing and Raytheon, and sold auto parts.

Mr. Chulada was a regional director for the Middlesex County Heart Association, where he organized and led the annual heart fund drive in many area towns for several years. He helped create the Littleton Recreation Association in the early 1950's and supported the town's Little League baseball organization. He also served as cub master for the local chapter of the Cub Scouts.

He was an avid and accomplished golfer who was a member of Nabnasset Lake and Groton country clubs, and served on the staff of Boca West Golf Club while living in Florida. He was also a member of St. Anne's Catholic Church.

Survivors include two daughters and sons-in-law, Helen A. and Edward F. Hunt of Littleton, Sandra M. and Timothy Carr of Jupiter Farms, Fla.; a son and daughter-in-law, Michael C. and Paula Hughes Chulada of Davis, Calif.; one brother, Anthony Chulada of Lowell; one sister, Jennie Pepe of Phoenix; nine grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren.

CHULADA — Chulada of Littleton, Sept. 5, 2002. Michael J. Chulada, age 87, Husband of the late Marietta Ann (Dannenberg) Chulada he is survived by 2 daughters Helen A. Hunt and her husband Edward F. of Littleton, Sandra M. Carr and her husband Timothy of Jupiter Farms, Florida and a son Michael C. Chulada and wife Paula Hughes Chulada of Davis Ca. and a brother Anthony Chulada of Lowell and sister Jennie Pepe of Phoenix Arizona also survived by 9 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. A Memorial Service will be held Sat., Oct. 19, 2002 at St. Anne's Catholic Church, King St., Littleton Ma. at 11 A.M. For those who wish donations may be made to the Life Care Center of Nashoba Valley Activities Fund 191 Foster St. Littleton Ma. 01460.