

Blanche M. Casey ¹⁹³ ... former Littleton resident

Blanche M. Casey, 75, of Pepperell, died Monday, June 14 at the Deaconess-Nashoba Hospital in Ayer.

Mrs. Casey is a former resident of Bedford where she resided for 35 years. She also resided in Littleton and Somerville.

She was the wife of the late Timothy C. Casey who died in 1985. Born in Bell Island, Newfoundland, on Sept. 19, 1917, she was the daughter of the late William C. and Mary C. (Goff) Cochrane.

As an assembler, Mrs. Casey was employed by the Raytheon Co. in Waltham, and retired from Semi Conductor in Bedford.

She was an avid knitter and belonged to the knitting club in Pepperell. She was also a communicant of St. Joseph's Church in Pepperell.

Mrs. Casey is survived by two sons, Timothy F. Casey of Pepperell, and David F. Casey of East Bridgewater; one brother, David Cochrane of Washington D.C.; six grandchildren; and six great-grandsons.

She was also the mother of the late Thomas R. Casey, and the sister of the late Kathleen M. Murnane and the late Eleanor Lee.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Joseph's Church, Pepperell. Burial was at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton.

Those who wish may make contributions to the American Heart Association, 20 Speen St., Framingham, Mass. 01701.

Funeral arrangements were made by The Hamilton Funeral Home, Pepperell.