

Mary Freeman Doyle, age 82, of Dedham, passed away peacefully at home on Friday, January 29, 2021, surrounded by her family. She was the loving wife of Edward Francis Doyle III.

Mary is survived by her loving husband Edward Francis Doyle III; daughters Deborah Doyle (Gary Latshaw) of Santee, CA; Jennifer Bahr (Robert) of Great Falls, VA; and Jamie Doyle Turner of Dedham, MA; grandchildren Mark Turner Jr., Ryan Turner, Callie Turner, and Justin Bahr; and brother Edward Andrew Landini of South Yarmouth, MA. Mary was predeceased by her parents Andrew Landini and Sylvia (Priest) Landini of Littleton, MA; and sister Jane Bancroft Karlson of Hudson, MA.

Family will gather to honor and remember Mary for a private funeral service on Monday, February 1, 2021 in the Badger Funeral Home, 347 King Street, Littleton. She will be laid to rest at Westlawn cemetery, 7 New Estate Road, Littleton immediately following the service.

Mary was born and raised in Littleton, MA, and was valedictorian of her class at Littleton High School. She went on to study at LaSalle College in Newton, MA. Mary raised her family in Dedham, MA, where she was a Brownie leader and Girl Scout leader. After raising her children, Mary went on to work at National Shoe Corp. (which later became J. Baker Inc.), first in Readville, MA and then in Canton, MA, until her retirement at the age of 70. The role Mary cherished the most was being Grandma to her three grandsons and one granddaughter, who love her dearly.
