

EDWARD DOIRON

Edward Doiron

Resident for 17 years

Edward P. Doiron of Littleton, died at Emerson Hospital in Concord after a short illness. He was the son of the late Augustine and Marietta (McCarville) Doiron.

He spent his early life in Somerville and Arlington and was a graduate of Somerville High School. Upon his discharge from the Navy, he worked for I.E.C./Damon Corporation in Needham, manufacturers of medical centrifuges, and had been employed by them until his retirement in 1985. A Littleton resident for the past 17 years, he was a member of St. Anne's Church in Littleton.

Mr. Doiron was survived by three brothers, Robert, of Reading, Charles, of Littleton, and Bernard, of Mashpee; and several nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by a brother, Capt. Raymond Doiron, U.S. Army.

Funeral services were held from the Badger Funeral Home, Littleton, on March 31, followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at St. Anne's Church. Burial took place in Westlawn Cemetery.

Edward P. Doiron

... longtime Littleton resident, 71
1998

LITTLETON — Edward P. Doiron, died Friday, March 27, at Emerson Hospital in Concord, after a short illness.

He was born in Arlington, on Nov. 6, 1926, a son of Augustine and Marietta (McCarville) Doiron. He spent his early life in Somerville and Arlington, graduating from Somerville High.

He was a World War II veteran, serving in the Navy as a seaman 1st class.

Upon his discharge, Mr. Doiron worked for I.E.C./Damon Corp. in Needham, a manufacturer of medical centrifuges, until his retirement in 1985.

A Littleton resident for the past 17 years, he was also a member of St. Anne's Church.

Mr. Doiron is survived by three brothers, Robert Doiron of Reading, Charles Doiron of Littleton and Bernard Doiron of Mashpee; and several nieces and nephews.