

DEATHS.—Miss Emma A. Dodge died suddenly last week Friday afternoon. She had been in failing health for a long time but hopefully looked on the bright side, thinking she would be better, till only a few hours before the end came. Her funeral was held Monday afternoon at her home. Her pastor, Rev. W. J. Cloues, speaking words of comfort and assurance to the mourning friends.