

LOUIS DIMITRUK

Louis Dimitruk

Enjoyed woodworking

Louis Dimitruk, 81, of Littleton, died Aug. 23, 1998. He was the husband of Mary (Puckarski) Dimitruk.

Born in Boston, he was the son of the late George and Mary Dimitruk. He was a shelter officer for the Littleton Emergency Management Agency. He was retired from Independent Cable and Wire of Hudson and had also worked at Rex Wire and Cable of Acton.

Mr. Dimitruk was a member of the Ayer Rod and Sportsman Club and enjoyed woodworking in his spare time.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three daughters, Dorothy Amann of Ohio, Carolyn Priest of Westford and Pauline Farrar of Shirley; seven grandchildren; three great-grandchildren and a sister, Victoria Pazyra of Everett. He was also the grandfather of the late Lisa Priest.

A funeral Mass was celebrated Aug. 27 at St. Anne's Church, Littleton followed by burial at West Lawn Cemetery.

Funeral arrangements were under the direction of the Badger Funeral Homes, Inc., Littleton.